Description :

PDF-8d113 | Darren grew up living in poverty. He suffered domestic abuse, his mother died young, leaving her school-age children behind her, and Darren fell into a trap of drug and alcohol addiction. But he managed to pull himself out of this. Now, Darren is a successful columnist and advocate for change, representing many NGOs and organisations in the Third Sector. The irony lies in that, in order to gain ... Poverty Safari: Understanding the Anger of Britain's Underclass
