Description :

PDF-61c21 | “What is it like up there?” Spitfire first became a household word during the Blitz, but it was not the first service the valiant aircraft had performed. At Dunkirk a year earlier, pilots had provided aerial support as the allied forces began their evacuation from France. In an attempt to answer the questions of the man on the street, Brian Lane, who wrote under the pseudonym of B. J. Ellan, tell... Spitfire!: The Experiences of a Battle of Britain Fighter Pilot
